Pray the Gospel daily through your email

The day’s Gospel will be delivered to your email inbox by 5 a.m. ET each weekday. In addition, you will receive a reflection on the Gospel written to help you incorporate the Gospel’s meaning into your everyday life. Each email also includes a prayer and description of the saint of the day.

Register for free at Faith.ND.edu/signup
Today's Saint

Blessed Teresa of Calcutta

Next to Pope John Paul II, Mother Teresa is perhaps the most famous holy person of modern times. It should be no surprise, therefore, that the two were friends and often visited one another.

Agnes Gonxha Bojaxhiu was born 1910 in Albania

---

Reflection

"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you." His gift is not the peace that the world understands as peace. Peace as the world understands is absence of conflict or turmoil. Jesus’ gift is much deeper than that. Paradoxically, Jesus’ peace can co-exist with conflict and turmoil. The peace Jesus gives is internal; based in the faith that God is with us and that we will enjoy eternal life and salvation. Despite the chaos that surrounds us, we rest safely in the palm of God’s loving hand.

Paul Ritter '88 J.D.

---

Prayer

Help us to know and to understand that lasting peace is a gift from you, our loving creator, but that also a human work: the work of each one of us. Raising up among us peacemakers—men and women who will fight for peace. We trust in your mercy and love for us and for all people.

Father Richard Warner, C.S.C.

---

Gospel

Jn 14:27-31a

Jesus said to his disciples:

"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid. You heard me tell you, 'I am going away and I will come back to you.'

Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid. You heard me tell you, 'I am going away and I will come back to you.'

'The day's Gospel delivered to your inbox by 5 a.m. ET each weekday

You heard me tell you,

'I am going away and I will come back to you.'

Paul Ritter '88 J.D.

---

Prayer

Help us to know and to understand that lasting peace is a gift from you, our loving creator, but that also a human work: the work of each one of us. Raising up among us peacemakers—men and women who will fight for peace. We trust in your mercy and love for us and for all people.

Father Richard Warner, C.S.C.

---

Reflection

"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you." His gift is not the peace that the world understands as peace. Peace as the world understands is absence of conflict or turmoil. Jesus’ gift is much deeper than that. Paradoxically, Jesus’ peace can co-exist with conflict and turmoil. The peace Jesus gives is internal; based in the faith that God is with us and that we will enjoy eternal life and salvation. Despite the chaos that surrounds us, we rest safely in the palm of God’s loving hand.

Paul Ritter '88 J.D.

---

Gospel

Jn 14:27-31a

Jesus said to his disciples:

"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid. You heard me tell you, 'I am going away and I will come back to you.'

Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid. You heard me tell you, 'I am going away and I will come back to you.'

'The day's Gospel delivered to your inbox by 5 a.m. ET each weekday

You heard me tell you,

'I am going away and I will come back to you.'

Paul Ritter '88 J.D.

---

Prayer

Help us to know and to understand that lasting peace is a gift from you, our loving creator, but that also a human work: the work of each one of us. Raising up among us peacemakers—men and women who will fight for peace. We trust in your mercy and love for us and for all people.

Father Richard Warner, C.S.C.